Re: Telephone Interview with 6th graders from St. Francis School

When: Thursday, March 14, 2003 2:15 p.m.

Please call me at 2:10 p.m. EST at 224-4362 and then I am going to patch us through to the center in Montana. At that point you will be talking to forty 6th graders from St. Francis School to talk about Senator Mike Mansfield as they celebrate what would have been his 100th birthday.

The call will take place from 2:15 to 2:35 p.m. EST today. When we call-in, we'll ask for Dave Irion (pronounced Iron). Dave will introduce you.

FYI: Ann, Senator Mansfield's daughter, was invited to the event and she flew in last night, she will be there today when you talk with the children.

At the beginning of the call you can talk about how you met Senator Mansfield – Boys State, your relationship with him, the good work he did for Montana. Please share any personal anecdotes (like the story of when you went to visit him in the hospital) that would show what a great man he was and your relationship with him. The teacher will then open it up to questions from the children.

I've pasted and attached a copy of your memorial speech for Senator Mansfield as background.

Please let me know if I can provide you with anything else.
